

CAYDEE MCCORMICK, MBA

Vice President of Human Resources

Whether it's in the office or her personal life, Caydee McCormick is passionate about focusing on the experiences in life. Life is all about what you create, live, and experience. With over 20 years in the people side of business, she brings her expertise in building great teams, creating a people culture, and a desire to coach people.

The majority of Caydee's career has been within the real estate industry. Prior to joining Billingsley, she worked at other top CRE firms like US Residential, Monogram Residential Trust and Mill Creek Residential Trust as VP of Human Resources. Caydee focuses on maximizing organizational performance through development and implementation of proactive programs covering a wide variety of responsibilities. These comprehensive programs include developing, evaluating, implementing, communicating, administering, and managing all facets of the people side of our business.
