

SKIP SIMPSON

Vice President of Asset Management

Skip Simpson began his career at Billingsley Company in 2013 as asset manager of the office portfolio. In 2015, Skip also took over the retail asset management functions until he was promoted in 2016 to Vice President of Asset Management with a sole focus on the day-to-day management of the office portfolio.

Prior to joining Billingsley, Skip worked for Deloitte for nine years. Skip spent the first three years in Deloitte's audit practice primarily serving real estate companies before he transferred to Deloitte's real estate valuation practice. In the valuation practice, Skip spent six years assisting publically traded real estate companies with their fair value accounting and reporting by preparing and auditing appraisals of every property type. Skip's clients at Deloitte included BlackRock, Invesco, Goldman Sachs, USAA Real Estate, Behringer Harvard, Fannie Mae, Macquarie, Cemex, Bank of America and Exxon Mobil.

Skip earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Accounting and a Master of Science in Accounting and Information Technology from Southern Methodist University. Skip is a member of the Urban Land Institute and the North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors and Real Estate Professionals. Skip spent seven years of his childhood overseas, living in Tokyo, Hong Kong and Jakarta.
