

SUMNER BILLINGSLEY

Partner

Sumner Billingsley is a Partner at Billingsley Company in Dallas, Texas. Sumner is responsible for the company's 8,567 units in the Multifamily portfolio. Her responsibilities include construction, design, operations, marketing, brand development and portfolio strategy. In addition, she is also responsible for overseeing the company's retail development, marketing and leasing.

Sumner began her real estate career working in development and acquisitions at Trammel Crow Company in Los Angeles, followed by CBRE in New York, before finally joining Billingsley Company in 2014.

Sumner earned her Bachelor's Degree from University of Southern California and her Masters in Real Estate Development from Columbia University. Sumner serves on the Urban Land Institute's Mixed-Use Council, the Board of the Dallas World Affairs Council, The North Texas Food Bank's Young Professionals Board, and is a member of the Associate Leadership Council Class of 2016.