

Angella Davis

Director of Multi-Family Marketing

As the Director of Marketing for Billingsley's Multi-family portfolio, Angella Davis manages the strategic and tactical branding and marketing efforts for the company's apartment and townhome communities. With a hands-on approach, working very closely with Operations and Training, Angella brings a fresh approach to Multi-family marketing.

Prior to joining the company, Angella was a Marketing Director at Pinnacle and a Marketing and Training Director with Lincoln's student division, Grand Campus Living. She has experience in student, senior, affordable, garden-style and high-rise communities across the United States. Angella came to Billingsley Company in 2021 with over 20 years of sales and marketing experience, with over 10 in Multi-family. She has experience in branding, reputation management, event management, and social media and digital marketing.

Angella is a graduate of North Texas University and holds a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in Marketing. She is always seeking knowledge and increasing her awareness of the newest technology and marketing trends.
